

Traveling from Vienna to Bratislava is easy and can be done by train, bus, or car:

1. Train – Fastest and Most Convenient

Trains run frequently between Vienna Hauptbahnhof (Main Station) and Bratislava.

- Departure stations:
 - Wien Hauptbahnhof → Bratislava-Petržalka
 - Wien Hauptbahnhof → Bratislava Hlavná Stanica (Main Station)
- Duration: ~1 hour
- Frequency: Every 30–60 minutes
- Cost: €10–€15
- Tickets: Available via ÖBB (Austrian Railways)

Tip: No seat reservation needed for regional trains. Tickets are valid on any train that day.

Construction on the railway – Bus replacement in effect

Due to ongoing reconstruction and electrification of the railway track, international REX trains between Vienna and Bratislava are currently not operating. Also, regional trains headed to Bratislava Hlavná Stanica (Main Station) are affected by the construction!

2. Bus – Cheap and Frequent

Several companies operate direct buses from Vienna (city center or airport) to Bratislava.

Main Providers:

- FlixBus
- Slovak Lines
- RegioJet
- BlaBlaCar Bus
- Departure points:
 - Vienna International Airport (Schwechat), follow signs for “Bus Terminal” in the Arrivals area, platforms 4 to 6
 - Vienna Erdberg (International Bus Terminal)
- Arrival:
 - Bratislava Nivy Bus Station
 - Bratislava Most SNP (city center) – close to the Venue
- Duration: ~1–1.5 hours
- Cost: €5–€15

Tip: Book online for better prices and to secure your seat. Buses typically offer Wi-Fi, air conditioning, and charging ports.

3. Car – Flexible and Direct

Driving is a great option if you prefer flexibility or are traveling with luggage.

- Distance: ~80 km (50 miles)

- Duration: ~1 hour
- Main route: A4 and A6 highways from Vienna to Bratislava via border crossing near Kittsee

Toll Information:

- Austria: You'll need a vignette (~€9.90 for 10 days) for Austrian highways.
- Slovakia: For the D4 motorway (used by most visitors), a vignette is not needed for short-term private car use near the border.

✅ Tip: Rent a car if you're planning side trips or prefer convenience. Be sure to comply with road rules and parking regulations in Bratislava.

